COMPANY PROFILE

introduction Intro

- RMS Foods & Events is a family-owned catering and charcuterie business in Krugerdorp, South Africa. We specialize in Indo-Fusion cuisine, blending Indian and South African flavors. Our food is strictly halal, ensuring freshness and quality.
- We provide catering for various occasions, from small family gatherings to corporate events and large wedding receptions. Our experienced chefs and event planners work closely with clients to create a customized menu.
- At RMS Foods & Events, we believe food brings people together. We pride ourselves on creating unforgettable dining experiences with a commitment to quality, authenticity, and exceptional customer service.

- RMS Foods was founded by Mrs. Rashida Mahomed and her sons in 2017 but officially established in 2020, during the lockdown period.
- It is a combination of all their respective experiences in food service, hospitality and event management – that culminated into this wonderful entity. Their leadership qualities and tenacity allowed them to bring RMS Foods & Events to where it is today.

PHILOSOPHY

It is the belief of the entity that the survival of any business is determined by three factors that have to work in tandem; product, price and delivery time.

No one can emphasize enough the importance of a high quality product that is competitively priced and delivered to a customer at agreed time frames. To achieve this, we have to constantly offer an amazing customer service that is characterised by reliability, honesty and integrity

Vision

To keep improving our competitiveness by applying value adding innovations to our services for competitive edge over the competition.

Mission

To feature as a benchmark in the service of high quality customised catering services that are designed to provide delightful culinary experiences directly proportional to the needs of our clients.
